So what is a NEWMAN CENTER?

College is a time of new beginnings — often students move to a new city, live on their own for the first time, and find a whole new group of friends. Sometimes it seems like the only thing a student can rely on is change. Newman Centers exist to provide stability and a home away from home.

Since 1893, Newman Centers have provided a Catholic refuge at public colleges. Through each Newman Center makes their own mission, they all share one goal: strengthening young adults in friendship, community, and the faith.

Newman Centers act as a home base for students looking to grow spiritually and socially through the connection of community. Newman Centers are parishes with dedicated spaces for students to hang out, meet lifelong friends, study, and grow closer to Jesus. They provide a vibrant community in a safe atmosphere to facilitate social interaction, academic success, and spiritual growth.

To accept or pursue an opportunity (to do something) with conviction. To take advantage of an opportunity when offered. When you seize an opportunity, you take advantage of it and do something that you want to do. Act quickly to use the opportunity while available. The following are some opportunitites that I have seized.

Milagro Eucarístico de
TURÍN
ITALIA, 1640

Durante la invasión de las tropas del Conde de Harcourt, los soldados se introdujeron en la iglesia de Santa María del Monte y asesinaron a muchos civiles. Sin embargo, la vida de los frailes capuchinos no fue tocada. Un soldado francés logró abrir el tabernáculo que contenía la píside con algunas Partículas consagradas, pero milagrosamente salió del interior una línea de fuego que llegó a quemarle el rostro y los vestidos. La pequeña puerta del tabernáculo, decorada con ágata y lapislázuli, presenta hasta hoy las huellas del forcejeo hechas por soldado.

Evento del momento del Milagro

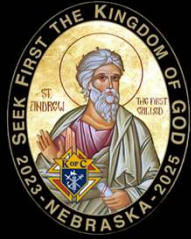

En 1640 la armada francesa del Conde de Harcourt llegó a atravesar el río Po, conquistando la fortaleza del Monte de los capuchinos. El Padre capuchino Pier Maria de Cambiano, describe detalladamente el Milagro Eucarístico ocurrido durante la ocupación de las tropas francesas en la iglesia de Santa María del Monte:

«El Piemonte fue inundado por ejércitos extranjeros, entre ellos los franceses que, habiendo dejado el caserío de Monferrato, ya liberado por los españoles, marcharon hacia Turín. El 6 de mayo de 1640 se encontraron en Chieri, el 7 en Moncalieri y el 10 llegaron a Turín. Allí lograron atravesar la orilla izquierda del Po, apoderándose del puente a pesar de la valerosa defensa de los nuestros que se retiraron hacia el convento de los Capuchinos del Monte. Pero ni siquiera allí se encontraron al seguro. En la mañana del 12 de mayo, los franceses asaltaron con potencia y energía por dos veces a las trincheras; y aunque por dos veces fueron rechazados, a la tercera obligaron a los nuestros a deponer las armas y a refugiarse con el pueblo esperando la salvación en un lugar santo, en la iglesia. Los invasores entraron en la iglesia, asesinaron a hombres y mujeres, jóvenes y viejos, civiles y soldados; e inclusive a aquellos que se habían refugiado en los altares sagrados, o entre los brazos de los frailes capuchinos, mientras pedían clemencia y la vida misma. Ningún religioso fue herido, pero se encontraron todos con el corazón despedazado ante la vista de tan execrable desastre. Luego de haber esparcido sangre, robaron los objetos sagrados

y saquearon el convento, porque siendo asilo seguro, tantos refugiados habían llevado sus pertenencias. Luego, en la misma iglesia (terrible decirlo) se abandonaron a actos brutales de libidine. Pero no bastaba. Un soldado francés, hereje, subió al altar y luego de haber destruido la cerradura del tabernáculo estaba por extraer la Píside con las sacrosantas Partículas para burlarse, pero sucedió un Milagro! Una línea de fuego salió del tabernáculo directamente hacia el pecho del sacrilego francés, quemándole los vestidos y el rostro. El soldado, atemorizado, se arrojó al suelo gritando y pidiendo perdón a Dios. Inmediatamente la iglesia se llenó de un denso humo que causó un común estupor y terror. En ese momento cesó el vandalismo».

Plan For Success-Key Tips to Remember

PLANNING YOUR CHURCH DRIVE

In addition to constantly extending the offer of membership to every eligible man, every council should hold at least two Church recruitment drives each triennial year. Church drives allow your council the opportunity to invite every man and his family to be a part of your council. The success of your Church recruitment drive will largely depend on the planning and preparations your council makes leading up to it. This worksheet can be used to note who is in charge of each task and to note completed once done.

2024 – 2025 Growth Incentives

YEAR-LONG INCENTIVES:

To reward those great advocates for the Knights of Columbus, who work all year long, we have a couple of incentives to reward their efforts. Let's celebrate those members, and even those non-members that are constantly helping more Catholic Men participate in Catholic charity and work for the betterment of the Church.

- INDIVIDUAL INCENTIVE – Every proposer of 3 new members within one month will earn $25. For every new member that proposer recruits above 3, they will earn a $10 bonus.
- NON-MEMBER INCENTIVE – $10 to any non-Knight that provides the primary work to bring a new member into our order. Mothers, or children or a Grandfather that never joined, can be rewarded for bringing them into the Knights. The council just needs to let the State Membership Director know the non-Knight that did the primary recruitment.

2024 – 2025 Growth Incentives

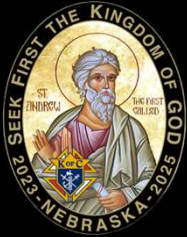

MONTHLY INCENTIVES:

1ST QUARTER – START FAST: Let's start the year off with a Fast Start! Growing your council to begin the year deserves a little reward, so we've designed a few incentives to reward the fast-starting councils:

- COUNCILS - will receive $3.50 per member cash incentive for new members brought into the council during July, August and September. 'PROGRESS REPORT USED TO DETERMINE'.
- COUNCILS SAFE ENVIRONMENT COMPLIANT – Councils that are fully compliant will be entered into a random drawing for $100 for each region. Councils that are 75% compliant will be entered into a random drawing for $25 for each region. 'Safe Environment Council Compliance Report' from Supreme will be used to determine.

2ND QUARTER – GROW THE ORDER AND GROW OUR FAITH: Now that we got a good start, we can keep building our councils one member at a time. Evangelization takes an effort from every Knight, and any of our great Knights can earn these incentives by growing their council.

- OCTOBER – Random drawing of one $100 winner and four $50 winners from all proposers.
- NOVEMBER – Random drawing of one $50 and one $25 winner from all proposers in each region.
- DECEMBER – 'A Knight Before Christmas' $500 split equally between all councils that bring in a new member during Advent of 2024. Council Membership Roster will be used to determine award winners.
